

March 3, 2019 Sermon Notes
Pastor Angelo Bonacquisti
“Our New Perspective”

2 Kings 6:8-12 (NKJV)

“Now the king of Syria was making war against Israel; and he consulted with his servants, saying, ‘My camp will be in such and such a place.’ ⁹And the man of God sent to the king of Israel, saying, ‘Beware that you do not pass this place, for the Syrians are coming down there.’ ¹⁰Then the king of Israel sent someone to the place of which the man of God had told him. Thus he warned him, and he was watchful there, not just once or twice. ¹¹Therefore the heart of the king of Syria was greatly troubled by this thing; and he called his servants and said to them, ‘Will you not show me which of us is for the king of Israel?’ ¹²And one of his servants said, ‘None, my lord, O king; but Elisha, the prophet who is in Israel, tells the king of Israel the words that you speak in your bedroom.’”

What do you see? The object we are looking at is the same but our perspective can be very different. How is your perspective? Many times we can't change our circumstances but we can change the way we look at them by having a godly perspective. So today I want to share with you some things that will help us improve our perspective.

So, to have a godly perspective...

I.) We have to live a _____.

II.) We have to see _____ the way _____ sees us.

When we have a godly perspective...

III.) It will _____ the _____ we see things.
